

INTERNATIONAL@HLS
INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC INTEREST RESOURCES

HLS PROGRAMS & OFFICES

- The Bernard Koteen Office of Public Interest Advising (OPIA) offers many resources for students interested in international public service work. Several advisors have expertise in international work, including: international public service (Attorney Advisor Ginny Greiman, Associate Director Lisa Williams, and Assistant Dean Alexa Shabecoff, Director of OPIA), international fellowships (Judy Murciano), and Federal government (Joan Ruttenberg and Assistant Director Catherine Pattanayak). For full bios and contact info, visit:
<http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/about/staff/index.html>
- Human Rights Program (HRP) fosters coursework and student participation in human rights activities through its summer fellowships, clinical work, speaker series, applied research, and scholarship. It also advises students wishing to conduct research projects with human rights organizations and provides counseling on careers in the field. For more information and contacts, see:
www.law.harvard.edu/programs/hrp/faculty_staff.html
- International Legal Studies is an academic department that offers classes, clinics, events and speakers that have an international, foreign, or comparative legal studies focus. Contacts include: Jeanne Tai (Assistant Dean for the Graduate Program & International Legal Studies) or Sara Zucker (Director of International Legal Studies Programs). See: www.law.harvard.edu/ils
- Office of Career Services (OCS) offers guidance for students seeking careers in the private sector. Contact Marni Goldstein Caputo (Assistant Director for International Programs & JD Advising) and see: www.law.harvard.edu/ocs
- HLS Student Organizations generally seek to bring together members of the HLS community who share an interest in a particular international issue or region. The following link <http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/planning/career-resources/docs/student-resources-and-organizations.pdf> is a listing of organizations within HLS that have an international focus. For a complete listing of student organizations, please visit: www.law.harvard.edu/studorgs
- Law Reviews/Journals Students at HLS produce scholarly journals devoted to specific areas of the law and many journals focus on the issues of the international community. To learn about the publications, visit: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/about/publications.html>

OPIA EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

• Wasserstein Fellows Advising

A few outstanding public interest attorneys are selected each year to visit HLS and advise students. The following fellows focus on international public interest work. For full bios and dates, see:

<http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/events/wasserstein-fellows-program/index.html>

- Clifton Johnson: Assistant Legal Adviser, Office of Law Enforcement and Intelligence, Department of State -- Fall (September 30th and October 1st)
- James Goldston '87: Executive Director, Open Society Justice Initiative -- Fall (October 1st and October 2nd)

• Legal Landscapes Panel

OPIA and OCS co-sponsor this panel series, where attorneys from diverse legal fields share their experiences. The Public International Panel is scheduled for Thursday, October 1st at 7:00 pm.

Anticipated panelists include:

- Clifton Johnson, Assistant Legal Adviser, Office of Law Enforcement and Intelligence, Department of State, Washington D.C.
- James Goldston '87, Executive Director, Open Society Justice Initiative, New York, NY
- Regan Ralph, Executive Director, Fund for Global Human Rights, Washington, DC
- Lisa Bhansali, Senior Public Sector Management Specialist, World Bank, Washington, DC

The Bernard Koteen Office of Public Interest Advising • Pound Hall, 329
617-495-3108 • pia@law.harvard.edu •

<http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/index.html>

The event will be moderated by Mindy Roseman, Academic Director and Lecturer on Law, Harvard Law School, Human Rights Program.

- Additional Speakers

OPIA invites many other speakers to campus throughout the academic year to share their career experiences with students. This fall, OPIA will sponsor or co-sponsor events featuring the following speakers:

- Serge Brammertz, Chief Prosecutor for the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) (Monday, October 5th at 7:00 p.m.)
- Kaoru Okuizumi, Judicial Officer in the Criminal Law and Judicial Advisory Section of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations, United Nations (Tuesday, October 20th, 12 p.m.)

FELLOWSHIPS & FUNDING

- Chayes International Public Service Fellowships provide HLS students with the opportunity to spend 10 weeks in the summer engaged in international public service within the governments of developing nations and those making difficult transitions to peace, stability, and democracy, as well as the inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations that support them. For more info, visit: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/news/spotlight/ils/fellowships/chayes-international-public-service-fellowship.html>
- Human Rights Program Fellowships support a wide variety of international human rights work during the summer and winter terms as well as after graduation. For more information, visit: www.law.harvard.edu/programs/hrp/fellowships.html
- For more resources and information on other fellowships, visit the HLS Fellowships page at: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/academics/fellowships/index.html>

PRINT & INTERNET RESOURCES

- OPIA Publications are written by our experienced attorney advisors and are an excellent place to start your research
 - Serving the Public: A Job Search Guide – Volume II: International is a comprehensive guide to international public interest law. It includes information on international employers, fellowships, funding and resources. Available in the OPIA Office.
 - Specialty Career Guides provide in-depth information, narratives, and resources on specific issue areas. Available in the OPIA Office.
- OPIA International Links include websites that can be used to research international fields of practice and organizations within the public interest realm: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/planning/career-resources/public-interest-links.html#6>
- HLS faculty members have research interests and expertise that are international in nature. For a list of names, contact info, and bios, click on the following link to our faculty directory <https://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/planning/secure/appendix-c---faculty-directory.pdf>
- Harvard University's international research programs and centers offer many resources to students interested in pursuing a career in public international law. The link below gives you a list to many of these international-oriented organizations. <http://www.law.harvard.edu/current/careers/opia/planning/career-resources/docs/international-centers-and-programs-at-harvard-university.pdf>