

Index

- Abraham 186
- age, suspect classification 84, 88
- agriculture, property rights 132
- altruism 162
- analogical reasoning 36, 37, 59–63, 78, 113
 - context-oriented 114–19
- antidiscrimination 88, 90, 92, 95, 99, 103, 134
- Aristotle 172
- Austria 100

- bank deposits, insurance 43
- bankruptcy, US law 43, 44
- bargaining, interest groups 53
- big business, as racket 82
- blacks
 - professional–business class 88, 91
 - separatism 93
- blue-collar workers 14, 88, 91
- Brazil 8
- Brown v. Board of Education* 95
- Buddhism 175
- bureaucracy 104
- businesspeople, independent 14

- capital, decentralized access 146
- capital-intensive industry 97
- capitalism 12, 28, 43, 96, 124–5
 - war 132
- capital markets 132
- Catholic Church 149
- central banking 43
- Chapter 11 reorganization 43, 44
- checks-and-balances, political 16
- China 8, 125
- Christian–Democratic parties 151
- Christianity 62, 175, 186
- citizens, legal analysis 113
- civil law 39, 120
- civil-rights movement 94–5, 118
- civil service 32
- civil society 10, 16, 39, 90, 96, 103, 154–5
 - free 27, 79, 101, 178
 - institutional form 7, 15
 - institutional innovation 17–18
 - organization 166
 - public law framework 145
 - reorganization 151–2
- Civil War 90
- class
 - disadvantages 87–8
 - social reality 92
- class-action lawsuits 30
- classical liberalism 155
- classifications, suspect 84, 86, 88, 90
- class society 85
- class structure, industrial democracies 13–15
- clerical workers 14
- codification, law 39, 108
- collective bargaining 27
- command economies 104
- common good 55
- common law 38, 62, 69–70, 108, 115, 120
- communitarianism
 - corporatist 149–50
 - liberal 149, 153–7
- communities 100
 - confederation 148–9
- competitive injury 43
- complex enforcement 30–31, 48, 49
 - agents of 31
- conceptualism 41
- conflicts, interest groups 53
- consensus 16, 165
- conservatism, institutional 144, 181
- conservative reformism 51, 78–81, 83, 105
- constitution
 - due process clause 84
 - US 82
- constitutional arrangements, impasse or
 - consensus favoring 165
- constitutional entrenchment 167
- constitutional interpretation 58
- consumption tax 139
- contract law 9, 16, 17, 96, 174
- contract rights 124
- convergence thesis, institutional fetishism 8–10
- corporate control, public–private 125
- corporate law 16, 96
- corporatism 11, 99–104, 140–41
 - communitarian 149–50

- criticism, relation between institutions and ideals 130–34, 179, 181
- culturalist approach, to law 126–8
- custom 116–17
- tribal societies 66
- customary law 107–8, 116, 183
- damnum absque iniuria* 42, 43
- deductive inference 60
- deep-structure explanation, of law 123–6
- defense procurement 132
- democracy 65–6, 72
- alternative futures 170
- common law and 115
- discomfort with 72–3, 77, 183
- economic 80
- institutional expression 7
- institutional innovation 15–17
- lawmaking 109–11
- majoritarian 64
- mobilizational see mobilizational
- democracy
- radicalization 144
- representative 4, 27, 39, 57, 79, 101, 129, 133, 146, 162, 173
- democratic experimentalism 6–8, 11, 14, 15, 180–81
- disciplinary tools 22–5
- and latent moral order 184–5
- social-theoretical assumptions 18–22
- determinism, social and historical 9
- devolution
- and inequality 154–7
- power 150, 151
- Dewey, John 30
- dualist political economy 97–9, 103
- due process 84
- Durkheim, Émile 149
- East Asia 125
- economic agents, risks 43–4
- economic analysis, public policy 25
- economic competition 135
- economic development, theory 23
- economic duress 116–17
- economic growth 102–3
- economic reorganization 135
- economics, institutional, non-existence 23–5
- economic theory 122–3
- economies of scale 96, 146
- economy, institutional innovation 12–13, 16
- education
- access 167
- equal protection 84–6
- hierarchy 96
- ongoing 140, 166
- elites
- industrial democracy 82
- lawmaking 70, 109
- marginalized groups 93
- employment
- legal regulation 27
- for life, Japan 127
- entrepreneurship 12
- equality, of opportunity 146
- equal protection 83–91
- evolutionary explanation, of law 123–6
- externalities, property rights 42–3
- families 153, 179
- family farms 132
- feminism 95, 118
- firms
- bankruptcy 43, 44
- cooperative competition 140, 146, 150, 152, 162, 165
- restructuring 12
- selective turnaround 44
- small-scale 161
- worker-owned 158–9, 160
- First Amendment 86
- formalism 41
- France 39, 100
- freedom, personal 184–5
- freedom of expression 142
- functionalism, law 123–6
- gender
- ascriptive group 92
- distinctions 93
- prejudice 98
- suspect classification 84, 88
- general interest, legislation 56–7
- generosity 162
- Germany 100, 108
- government intervention
- intolerance of 9
- legitimacy 47, 101
- rejection 97
- Great Depression 141
- group alliances 136–7
- group identities 21–2, 180
- groupism, politics 90, 92–4, 99
- groups
- forms of life 153–4
- intermediate 141–2, 165
- gubernaculum* 108
- Habermas, Jürgen 177
- halakhah 187–8
- Hart, H.L.A. 119, 122
- Hegelianism 9, 23, 72, 74, 76–7
- Hindu law 120

- historicism 171, 174–6
 approach to law 126–8
 and rationalism 177–82
 Holmes, Oliver Wendell, Jr 26
 homosexuality, politics 89
 human nature 169–70
 human rights 166–9
- iconoclasm 186, 187, 189
 ideals, interests and 5–6, 105, 129 ideological conflict, society 64
 ideology, legitimation 56
 idolatry 186, 187, 189
 indirect taxes 94, 139
 individual emancipation, democracy and 6–7
 individualism, radical 143
 individuals
 free choices 27–8
 life projects 138, 147–8, 172
 industrial democracies 1, 4, 112, 143 citizens' anger 81–2
 class structure 13–15
 ills 82
 legal and institutional forms 7, 175–6, 181 social alliances 137
 social arrangements 22–3 industrial organization, postfordist 10
 industrial society 133
 industry
 capital-intensive 97, 158
 postfordist reconstruction 137 inequality, and devolution 154–7 inheritance, private, replacement 14–15
 institutional conservatism 79
 institutional fetishism 6–8, 20, 22, 129, 168, 169 convergence thesis 8–10 institutions
 alternative futures 135–8
 change 70–71, 80
 extended social democracy 139–42
 mobilizational democracy 164–6
 practices and 5–6, 105, 129
 radical polyarchy 150–52
 reconstruction 93–4, 185
 scrutiny 49
 selection 126
 structure 95–6
 insurance, bank deposits 43 interest group pluralism 46–7, 70
 and rationalizing legal analysis 52–9, 65–6
 interest groups, negotiation 100
 intermediate groups 141–2, 146, 165
 Isaac 186
- Islam 62, 186
 Islamic law 120
 Italy 100
- Jacob 187
 Japan 127
 Jefferson, Thomas 30
 Jewish law 120, 186–9
 Jhering, Rudolf von 26, 126
 job security 11
 Judaism 62
 judge-made law 38, 69–70, 115
 judges 73, 99
 adjudication 108–13
 decisions 113–19
 role, historical context 106–8 judicial review 55
 judiciary 49
 federal 94–5
 structural intervention 32–3 jurisdictio 108
 jurisprudence, rationalizing legal analysis 72–3
 jurists 39, 40, 45, 50, 73, 105, 108, 111, 112, 133, 178
jus commune 108
 justice, distributive 4
- Kelsen, Hans 119, 122
kenosis 128–9
 Keynesianism 34
 Keynes, J.M. 25
 Kierkegaard, Søren 186
- labor, reskilling 12
 labor contracts 27
 laborforce
 hierarchical segmentation 95–6 Japanese 127
 mass-production 98
 privileges 102
 segmented 17–18
 two-tier 101, 159
 unionization 8
 labor-intensive operations 97 labor law 17
 labor markets, flexible 11
 law 1, 189–90
 comprehensive theory 128–9
 constructive interpretation 42, 118 contemporary 26–8
 customary 107–8
 extended social democracy 139–42
 functionalist approach 123–6 genealogies 65–7, 69–74
 historical-culturalist approach 126–8
 Judaism 186–9

- law (cont.)
 judicial interpretation 108–9
 mobilizational democracy 164–6
 policies and principles 36–7, 54–7, 69, 70, 73, 77–8, 81, 119, 178, 183
 pure theory 122–3
 radical polyarchy 150–52
 reforms 49, 50
 state-made 182–4
 under dualist and corporatist political economies 97–104
- lawmaking 55, 108, 109
 dictatorships 66
- left, distinguished from right 135–6
- legal analysis 1, 22, 65
 adjudication 113–19
 institutional change 35, 36
 as institutional imagination 25, 26, 129–34, 171, 182
 judicial decisions and 111–13
 limits 34–6
 rationalizing see rationalizing legal analysis
 redirection 170
 revisionary power 67–8, 74–6 theory-like conceptions 67–8
- legal doctrine
 radical indeterminacy 120–22
 tactical reinterpretation 51–2
- legal ideals, relation to social facts 49–50
- legal process 107
- legal process materials, Hart and Sacks 73
- legal reasoning 64, 110
- legal science, nineteenth-century 41–6, 51, 59, 63, 71, 126, 168, 173–4
- legal theory 45, 176
- legal thought 1, 24
 antidiscrimination 98–9
 antiexperimental 107
 argumentative structure 76–7 development 26–30, 136
 history 183
 public and private rights 155–6
- liberal communitarianism 149
 problems 153–7
- liberalism 141
 classical 155
 conservative 151
 nineteenth-century 16
 progressive 171
- literalism, interpretation of law 39
- living standards, hierarchy 139
- local government, strengthening 150–51, 152
- Lochnerism 45–6, 84, 131
- Mansfield, William, 1st Earl 59
- mapping, institutional structure 130–34, 179
- market economy 4, 27, 39, 43, 79, 96, 101, 155, 173, 189
 democratized 14, 15
 destabilizing effects 9
 free 178
 institutional forms 7, 12–13, 24–5, 44, 57–8, 87, 124–5, 129, 146
 legal forms 45, 87
 removal of constraints 10
- Marxism 3, 9, 14, 23, 123, 156
- Marx, Karl 9, 122
- mass-production 97, 98, 137
- material progress, democracy and 6–7
- media, access to 142, 145, 165
- middle class 144
- migrant workers 101
- mixed economy 133
- mobilizational democracy 163–4
 human nature 169–70
 law and institutions 164–6
 social experimentalism 166–9
- money, public monopoly 43
- monotheism 186
- Montesquieu, Charles de 26
- moral expectations 116
- moral hazard 43
- moral judgements, analogical reasoning and 61
- moral order, latent 182–5
- moral sensibility, changes 175
- nationalism 21
- natural rights, doctrine 167
- neighborhood associations 152
- neoliberalism 9
- Netherlands 1
- New Deal 20, 34–5, 73, 77
- organizations associational forms 145, 151
 decentralized 153
 intermediate 141–2, 165
- panductism 39
- parallel structures 152
- parliamentary government 16, 32
- pessimistic progressive reformism 51–2, 81–3, 174
 substantive equal protection as 91–7
- petty-commodity production 161
- philosophical radicals 22
- physical impairment
 ascriptive group 92
 suspect classification 84, 88–9
- Plato 172
- plebiscites 145, 165

- political campaigns, public financing 145, 165 political economy 22
 corporatist 99–104, 140–41
 dualist 97–9, 103
 political energy, extended social democracy 145 political mobilization levels 165
 popular 16–17
 political philosophy 136
 institutional possibility 4–6 politics
 little 143, 147–8
 withdrawal from agenda 166–8 power, devolution 150, 151
 presidentialism, US-style 16, 32
 price rigidities 141
 private law 17, 18, 24, 27, 47, 71, 101, 142, 152
 private property 96
 private rights, entrenchment 45–6
 private schools 84–6, 96
 privatization 9
 Eastern Europe 8
 professional–business class 14, 85, 88, 91, 96, 143–4
 professional politicians 16
 property, inherited 139 property law 9, 174
 property rights 80, 96, 124, 126
 conflict among 42–3, 44, 45, 155–6 disaggregation 152, 157–8, 165–6
 exceptions 131–2
 legal character 10
 transformation 12–13
 unified 104, 135
 public enterprises 146
 public interest 47, 55–6
 public law 16, 27, 101, 142, 145, 152
 public schools, USA 84–6, 96

 race 149, 153
 ascriptive group 92
 distinctions 93
 prejudice 98
 suspect classification 84, 88
 racial desegregation, schools 85 racial segregation 95
 radical polyarchy 148–50, 166
 devolution and inequality 154–7
 law and institutions 150–52
 problems 153–7
 reconstructed 161–3
 worker ownership 103–4, 150, 152, 157–61
 rationalism 176
 deflation 170–74
 and historicism 177–82
 premodern 172
 rationalizing legal analysis 2, 36–7, 51, 52, 120, 128–9, 131, 171, 173–4 antiexperimentalist 39–40
 anti-institutionalism 99
 arbitrariness 77–8
 conservative reformism 51, 78–81
 corporatist political economy 103
 diffusion 38–9
 and interest group pluralism 52–9 moment of 46–50
 pessimistic progressive reformism 51–2, 81–3, 91–7
 political failure 105–6
 prejudice against analogy 59–63
 rational disharmony 90–91
 rationalism and historicism 177–9 regime of rights 63–78
 role of the judge 106–19
 social therapy 82–3 Rawls, John 177
 reasoning, analogical 36, 37, 59–63, 78, 113, 114–19 Reconstruction, post-Civil War 77, 90
 redistribution 135, 159–60
 referenda 145, 165
 Reform Judaism 188
 religion 149, 153
 ascriptive group 92
 demythologized 188
 rent-seeking 56–7, 104
 representative democracy 4, 27, 39, 57, 79, 101, 129, 133, 162, 173
 institutional form 146
 resentment, counter-politics of 94
 reskilling, labor 12 resources, decentralization of access 146
 retraining 140
 right, distinguished from left 135–6
 rights 26–7
 conflicting 155–6
 enjoyment 35, 36, 86, 87, 107, 181
 entrenched impediments to 118
 entrenchment 167
 frustration 30–31, 32–3
 fundamental 142
 law as embodiment 46–7
 practical conditions for enjoyment 28–9 principles of 4
 regime of 63–5, 75, 78
 system of 124
 vested 141, 158
 risk, economic agents 34
 Roman law 183
 rule of law 63–5, 78, 90–91, 109
 rules 26–7

- Santi Romano 149
 Sargentich, Lewis 30
 Savigny, Friedrich von 183
 Scandinavia 100
 schools, racial desegregation 85
 secular humanism 188
 self-government, popular 117, 118
 self-management 150, 161
 services, labor-intensive 97
 sexual orientation
 ascriptive group 92
 inherited 89
 suspect classification 84
sic utere 42
 slavery 90, 98
 Smith, Adam 9
 social change, routine and revolutionary 19–20
 social classes, European 71
 social contract 101, 102, 103
 social democracy 47, 51, 100, 171
 classical 144
 compromise 4, 34–5, 48, 111, 141
 extended 138–48, 163, 166
 liberalized version 9–10 parties 143
 reconstruction 20
 social endowment 14–15, 139, 140, 142
 social experimentalism 166–9
 socialism 12, 28
 social life, forms of 18–19, 173, 183
 social mobility, bluecollar to whitecollar 14, 88 social reform 83
 racial desegregation 85
 social rights 100, 101–2, 103
 social sciences, and institutional change 2–4 society
 ideological conflict 64
 institutional structure 130–32
 weakest groups 81
 state
 as racket 82
 strong 156
 state-action doctrine 45–6, 85, 86–7 statutory law 38
 structural change, accounts of 3
 structural injunctions 30–31
 structural intervention, agents of 31–3 structure fetishism 129
 subsidiarity 103, 104, 151
 substantive equal protection 83–91, 99, 103, 133–4
 as pessimistic progressive reformism 91–7
 suffrage, qualified 16 suspect classifications 84, 86, 88, 90
 tax-and-transfer 29, 35, 48, 51, 111, 135
 taxation 96, 97
 consumption 139
 redistributive 97
 township village enterprises 125
Treuhandgesellschaft 44
 tribalism 153, 154
 tribal societies, custom 66
 underclass 82, 87, 91–2, 95–6, 97, 98, 137
 unemployment 11
 unions, traditional 17–18
 United Kingdom, private schools 86
 United States 183
 class structure 14
 dualist political economy 97–9
 institutional change 29–30
 judge-made law 38
 judiciary 33
 labor market 11
 level of political engagement 19
 pessimistic progressive reformism 82–3
 unskilled workers 87
 value-added tax 139
 voting, mandatory 145, 165
 Washington consensus 9
 wealth tax 139
 welfare 102
 law as embodiment 46–7
 welfare state 10, 15, 27, 94, 100
 whitecollar workers 14, 88, 91, 144
 white males, counter-politics of resentment 94
 women, professional–business class 88, 91 women's rights 95
 worker ownership 103–4, 150, 152, 157–61
 workers
 permanent and temporary 95 relatively privileged 17–18
 worker self-management 103–4 working class 14, 88, 91, 96
 industrial 137, 143
 vulnerability 97–8
 white male 94, 98
 World War II 141
 Yugoslavia 161
 Zionism 188