

August 1, 2007

Dear HLS Class of 2010,

On behalf of the Harvard Law School Catholic Students' Association (CLSA), we would like to welcome you to HLS!

The Catholic community at HLS is vibrant and diverse. We all come from different geographic, academic, cultural and racial/ethnic backgrounds – yet we are united by our faith. We would love to have you become a part of our community! CLSA prides itself on being an organization which is committed to providing spiritual, academic, and social opportunities for growth.

Though we know that 1L year is a very busy and sometimes overwhelming time, we hope that you will be able to join us for some of our many exciting events. Every other week CLSA hosts a mass on the Law School campus, which is followed by a social that includes dinner. In addition, each semester we host a day, and sometimes, a weekend retreat in order to provide time for reflection and fellowship.

This year, we will be hosting happy hours twice a month, speakers and other social events within the law school and with the larger Harvard community to build fellowship. We also have a dynamic community service committee that will be liaising throughout the year with other organizations on campus to provide community service projects both within and without the church.

For further information and updates on events, masses and other resources, please review our website: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/students/orgs/clsa/>. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at clsa@law.harvard.edu.

Thank you for your interest in CLSA! We look forward to meeting each of you and would like to extend to you an invitation to attend our Welcome BBQ, which will be held September 7th at 6pm at Jarvis Field (on the law school campus).

In the peace of Christ,

Tona Boyd
Alanna Buchanan
Sonia Marquez
Co-Presidents, CLSA '07-'08