Dear HLS Class of 2009,

Congratulations to all of you for having been accepted to Harvard Law School and for choosing to join us here this fall!

The Harvard Law Latter-day Saints Student Association (HLLDS) is made up of HLS students and their families who are members of, or interested in, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We have an outstanding group approaching 40 student members, and we are dedicated to making the law school experience more enjoyable and more rewarding for each one in our group. You've probably just finished reading a longer description of HLLDS on our website (<http://www.law.harvard.edu/students/orgs/latterday/>), and if not, you should read it now.

We've already heard from many of you that will be joining us this fall. For all those who we haven't made contact with yet, please email me right away (mchampoux@law.harvard.edu) so that we can make ourselves available to help you as you prepare to move out to Cambridge and start classes in September.

As a heads up, we already have plans to start out the year with an incredible opening social. We are extremely fortunate to be able to have Judge Thomas Griffith (DC Circuit) join us for dinner and a talk on the evening of Saturday September 16, 2006. We hope all of you can make it. Families, of course, are invited, as they are for all HLLDS events.

On a practical note, for anyone (especially single students) still looking for housing, there is a helpful website that lists LDS housing in the Boston area: <http://lp1.justlists.org/housing/>. You should also feel free to email me or one of the other officers if you have any questions about housing in the area. Information about the Cambridge LDS Institute and local LDS wards can be found at <http://www.lds.org/institutes/home/0,8473,768-1-36-60384,00.html>.

We're looking forward to meeting you in September! Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns.

-Mark Champoux, on behalf of HLLDS
