Family Bonds
Adoption, Infertility, and the New World of Child Production
0-8070-2803-7 / PAPERBACK / $18.00
The only book to make sense of the worlds of adoption and fertility treatment.
“...recommended to anyone contemplating or involved with adoption and to any citizen concerned about the welfare of children in our society.”
—CAROLYN MOORE NEWBURGER, The Boston Globe
“...An intelligent and passionate exploration of the legal, racial, and psychological issues raised by the adoptin of children of one race by parents of another.”
—DANIEL GOLDSTINE, New York Times Book Review

Nobody’s Children
Abuse and Neglect, Foster Drift, and the Adoption Alternative
0-8070-2319-1 / PAPERBACK / $17.50
A powerful exposé and a call to action for abused and neglected children.
“An extraordinary book. Chilling, inspiring, and utterly convincing, it creates an ironclad case for the adoption solution.”
—SYLVIA ANN HEWLETT, chairman of the National Parenting Association
“Elizabeth Bartholet is a passionate crusader on behalf of children, and she brings to her subject vigorous, clear-headed prose and the moral authority of her professional dedication. ... Her passion for protecting children is expressed both rationally and polemically.”
—ANN-JANINE MOREY, Chicago Tribune

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
Elizabeth Bartholet has been a professor at Harvard Law School since 1977. She writes, lectures, and consults widely on issues involving child welfare, adoption, and reproductive technology. The mother of three boys, two of them from Peru, she lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.